Heritage Centre Tudor Day

In July Yate Heritage Centre held a Tudor History Day on St Mary's Green.

The event was a very informative and entertaining family day out. It included brilliant performances from the Ineptitudors, who interacted with the audience with jousting tournaments on hobby horses and bread sticks, as well as offering a variety of Tudor remedies for illness, eg foxes grease and garlic for baldness. A matchlock musket was fired, the Bristol Waites entertained with early Tudor music and the rat catcher was also there.
